M1 Economics and Evaluation of Development and Sustainability (EEDS)

Master's degree
Specialisation Economie politique et institutions
Enrolment type
Formation initiale
Language(s) of instruction
English
French

This 1st year Master's enables students to develop their project, whether this involves pursuing a doctorate or entering the job market. Students will become familiar with and master the theoretical concepts and methodological tools (taking into account contexts in terms of time horizons, spatial scales, stakeholder strategies and institutions) needed to understand and analyse economic issues in detail.

2 semesters Internship or dissertation of 6-8 weeks Limited and selective capacity (15 in 2nd year Master's) Full-time academic programmes or continuing education, 100% continuous assessment by lecturers and a high proportion of professional lecturers Integration days, personalised mid-course assessment, tutored project, conference-visits with professionals, participative in-course workshops Agreement with the Conseil Général des Yvelines enables our best students to carry out assessments of decentralised cooperation projects in the field (Africa, South America, Asia). Active participation by the 2nd year Master's EEDS teaching team in research networks (CIRAD, GIS-GEMDEV, Association Française d'Economie Politique, Association Tiers Monde, etc.) provides our students with scientific contacts.
