Great fun and an interesting part of Paris

Team building exercise for approx 35 of us. Split into teams of 5 for a competitive edge and basically hurtled around the Marais area of Paris with iPads for an hour or so. Good fun and grabbing a few electric scooters en route made it even more entertaining

Great team-building activity

Google Traduction

A group of 34 of us from work (aged 21- over 50) took part in this activity for a corporate team-building event. Split into 7 teams, we were able to compete against each other in groups of 4/5. Everyone really enjoyed the activity and it was excellent to be able to see a different side to Paris.

As we were a competitive group, our time to complete the task ranged from just over an hour to an hour and 45 minutes. However, had we been non-competitive, there was loads of extra information to read and more detail on locations which were not part of the game, so there was plenty to do and learn.

Martin was extremely helpful prior to and during the activity to help organise the logistics for a large group. Thanks again!
