Regulatory information

The information collected is recorded in a computerized file by the University of Paris-Saclay, in its capacity as data controller, for the purposes of surveys related to the evaluation of the learning conditions of students and former students, with an objective improvement of the public service of higher education and for research purposes. This is optional processing, the legal basis for which is the consent of the respondents. This consent can be withdrawn at any time.

This information is kept for five years and is intended only for agents in charge of the statistical surveys subject to this processing. The final results of the surveys do not present nominative data and may be used for research purposes.

In accordance with the law "Informatique et Libertés" and the General Regulation on the protection of personal data, you can exercise your right of access to data concerning you and have them rectified or withdrawn by contacting the data protection officer of the University at the following address dpd@universite-paris-saclay.fr. You can also, for legitimate reasons, oppose the processing of data concerning you.

You also have the possibility, in application of article 40-I of the law n ° 78-17 of January 6, 1978 relating to data processing, files and freedoms to define directives relating to the fate of your personal data. personnel after your death.
