

Questions and documents for application at Masters / engineering programs

You will find below the list of all the questions that you will need to answer in order to apply for the Eiffel Scholarship at University Paris-Saclay.

Use the list of required documents before you begin your application to ensure that you have everything you will need.

Title (Mr., Mrs.)

Last name

First name

Nationality

Place of residence

Date of birth

Sworn statement that you do not hold French nationality

Email address

Do you have an M2 degree or are you in the process of obtaining one?

Name of last post-secondary institution attended (bachelor, masters, etc.)

Type of post-secondary institution (public or private, university or school)

City

Country

Ranking within your post-secondary program (not compulsory)

Number of students in your program

Desired masters / engineering program and year (1st/2nd)

A list of all the masters eligible for the Eiffel scholarship is available on the University page for the Eiffel Scholarship. Once you find your master program of choice, take note of its field of study.

Fields of study :

-Biology and health

-Ecological transition

-Mathematics and digital

-Science and engineering

-History, French language and civilization

-Law and political sciences

-Economics and management

Make sure you choose the right campus as some programs can be given on different campuses: Orsay, Evry or Versailles

Documents to be provided

All documents in the same category must be merged into a single PDF

- Photocopy of passport (identity page) or identity papers
Please note that a passport will be required if you are selected by the University Paris-Saclay & Campus France
- Curriculum vitae written in French or English (1 to 2 pages)
- Documents attesting your excellence: ranking, dean's list, academic award, merit scholarship, etc.
- Transcripts of post-secondary grades
- Post-secondary Diplomas
- School Enrollment Certificate for the year 2023/2024 if the candidate is currently a student
- Certificate of proficiency in the language of instruction of the Master's program if it is not the native language, or proof of higher education studies in that language
- Motivation letter / Professional project, written in French or in English (1 to 2 pages). The applicant should write their project in a way that explains the choice of studies in France in relation to previous studies and the future professional career.
- Letters of recommendation from academic and/or professional references (max 3 letters)

