

EUGLOH-UPSaclay Programme for co-creating Training Opportunities

Call for Applications

The EUGLOH European Alliance is a strategic long-term partnership between the Paris-Saclay University, Lund University, Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München, University of Porto, University of Szeged, Alcalá University, the Arctic University of Norway, Novi-Sad University and the University of Hamburg. Within the EUGLOH alliance, a balanced interfaculty consortium of researchers and students develops interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary activities and programmes.

Initiatives from all thematic areas and all communities from the involved universities are welcome and encouraged.

The EUGLOH-UPSaclay Programme for co-creating Training Opportunities is fully part of UPSaclay Education Internationalisation strategy. It aims to extend and deepen the co-development of innovative multidisciplinary long term educational programmes with Eugloh partners (such as Double Degrees, Summer Schools, Insertion of Eugloh trainings within optional or elective modules...).

The submitted projects must be written with a co-development approach, highlighting the impact of planned actions on the long-term cooperation with the partners universities and/or on student mobility.

Funding can also be used for a professional mission in order to work on the co-creation of the training project with and at partners' sites or for teaching mobilities (minimum of 8 hours) within the Eugloh universities.

Budget
