FAQ EIFFEL SCHOLARSHIP – PARIS-SACLAY UNIVERSITY

- How do I get the Eiffel Scholarship to study at University Paris-Saclay?

Each French university sets up its own pre-selection process according to its own procedure and criteria.

For the Paris-Saclay University, the procedure is detailed on the scholarship web page:

<https://www.universite-paris-saclay.fr/en/admission/bourses-et-aides-financieres/eiffel-scholarship-programme>

- When does the call for applications open for the 2024/2025 academic year?

The call for the pre-selection process will be open at the end of September/beginning of October when the call from Campus France will be published.

The Eiffel scholarship webpage of the university will then be updated:

<https://www.universite-paris-saclay.fr/en/admission/bourses-et-aides-financieres/eiffel-scholarship-programme>

- When is the application deadline for the Eiffel scholarship?

The International Relations Office is in charge of the pre-selection procedure for the University of Paris-Saclay.

The deadline to apply for an Eiffel scholarship for a Master or PhD at the Paris-Saclay University is November 12th, 2023.

The details of the complete procedure can be found on the scholarship web page:

<https://www.universite-paris-saclay.fr/en/admission/bourses-et-aides-financieres/eiffel-scholarship-programme>

- When will I know if I have been awarded the scholarship?

After the end of the application process on November 18th, the International Office and the various departments concerned will review the applications.

The candidates preselected to be endorsed by the University Paris-Saclay will be contacted on December 4th, 2023 for the next steps.

If you do not receive a pre-selection email that day, this unfortunately means that your application has not been preselected.

Campus France will publish the names of the scholarship recipients in April 2024.

FAQ EIFFEL SCHOLARSHIP – PARIS-SACLAY UNIVERSITY

- I am a dual-citizen with French nationality, can I apply for the Eiffel scholarship?

The Eiffel scholarship is meant for students of foreign nationality.

Students with dual nationality, one of which is French, are not eligible for the scholarship.

You can find a list of other available scholarships here: <https://campusbourses.campusfrance.org/#/catalog>

FAQ EIFFEL SCHOLARSHIP – PARIS-SACLAY UNIVERSITY

- I am interested in the Eiffel scholarship, when should I apply?

The application process will begin one year before the start of the intended year of matriculation. The entire selection procedure for Eiffel scholarship applicants takes one full year before the intended start date of the Master's degree or the PhD mobility.

For example, if you want a scholarship for a program starting in September 2024, you must apply in the fall of 2023.

You can therefore apply to the scholarship for a Master's degree as a final-year student that has not yet obtained their Bachelor.

- Is the Master's program I am interested in eligible for the Eiffel scholarship?

Not all Masters programs at the Paris-Saclay University are eligible for the Eiffel scholarship, it depends on several criteria such as the field of study, the type of training, etc.

The Masters you can apply for in the framework of this scholarship are listed in an Excel table published on the scholarship webpage:

<https://www.universite-paris-saclay.fr/en/admission/bourses-et-aides-financieres/eiffel-scholarship-programme>

FAQ EIFFEL SCHOLARSHIP – PARIS-SACLAY UNIVERSITY

- If I apply for the Eiffel scholarship for a Master program at Paris-Saclay, do I also have to apply through the normal procedure?

When you submit your application, you are applying for an Eiffel scholarship at the Paris-Saclay University, you are not applying for the Master program concerned by this scholarship.

Whatever the result you obtain following the pre-selection process by Paris-Saclay University, you must also apply for the desired Master program through the normal procedure.

Indeed, the pre-selection to the Eiffel scholarship by Paris-Saclay University does not equate to an official acceptance in the program.
