- Please, check around you if you see struggling students

Some advice for the upcoming year ...

TRAINING

---

- Try summer schools (if possible!)
  - They usually count for 20H-30H
  - The doctoral school can help pay the fees (up to 500€)
  - It usually lets you travel:)
- Follow Master's courses!
  - You can ask to skip the exam ;)
- Get involved in seminars/science fairs/vulgarization
- Always check whether something can count as training hours
  - The ED does not generally cover training expenses
  - You must prove that you attended

Some advice for the upcoming year ...

ADUM

---

- Your picture in ADUM should be an official one
  - It will be used for your student card
- You will have to pay the tuition fees
  - Go to "my profile" > "Tuition fees payment"
  - If you cannot access the payment webpage, change your browser
  - Some payment cards are not accepted but you can still pay by cheque or bank transfer
- Turn your school attendance certificate into a PDF
  - In your browser, go to "print" > "print to PDF"
- If you face any problems, please contact your pole!

Some advice for the upcoming year ...

COVID-19

---

- Do not stay isolated at home!
  - You should communicate with your advisor/team whenever you think it is necessary
  - You can join the support group to discuss with other PhD students
- Try to keep good health practices
  - Working remotely, you might want to work even more, so take care of you!
- Some classes remain open
  - You have an overview of them in ADUM (Master's courses are also open, ask professors)
- Communicate any issue you face!

You want to be one of us?

2021 ELECTIONS

- Contact us to get information
- Five representatives are elected
  - There should be at least one representative per pole
- You can declare your candidacy in January
  - You will receive mails about it
- The election is online
- Results are announced early February
